

A Nature Workshop with Watercolor and Words

Holly Tarrant, Instructor

Sat., July 28, 2012, 9:00 a.m. to noon

Children ages 8 and up are invited to spend a morning in a beautiful outdoor setting and learn to combine artwork and writing. In this workshop, teacher and artist Holly Tarrant will teach some basic watercolor techniques including a wash, wet in wet, and dry brush. Then students will apply simple poetry (such as Haiku) to their paintings.

This workshop will be held at McMullen Pond. In case of rain, we will change the location to 200 Canaan Mountain Road, Falls Village (our future Ted and Elisabeth Childs Center).

Parents must provide transportation, and are welcome to bring a camp chair and read or take a walk.

Fee is $10 per student, $20 per family. To register, please contact jean@greatmountainforest.org.
