

Trail Descriptions for GMF Recreational Map with Difficulty Ratings (in bold)

East Gate Trails (Norfolk)

Tamarack Trail (0.9 miles): pedestrian only; accessed from Camp Rd. and Crissey Trail near the East Gate Parking Lot; interpretive trail around Tamarack Pond; family-oriented; gentle natural terrain. Easy

Camp Road (2.2 miles): well-maintained east-west gravel road; begins at East Gate; rises steeply; passes Old Man McMullen Pond; terminates at Potter's Corner. Easy

Overlook Trail (1.3 miles): pedestrian only; lookouts over Tobey Pond, Norfolk town center, and Haystack Mountain; connects with Camp Road. Moderate

Charcoal Pit Trail: (1.6 miles): pedestrian only; gentle grade; connects with Overlook and Tobey Bog trails. Moderate

Tobey Bog Trail (0.8 miles): pedestrian only; accessed off Charcoal Pit trail; terminates at Tobey Bog. Tobey Pond access is not for public use. Easy

Crissey Trail (2 miles): accessed by Camp Rd., Number Four Trail or Chattleton Rd; historic road to Potter's Corner; Moderate grade, use caution when wet! Moderate

Crossover Trail (0.7 miles): accessed off Camp Rd. or Crissey Trail; glacial erratic boulders on the north end; view of Crissey Pond via short spur trail. Easy

Crissey Ridge Trail (1.2 miles): accessed off Crissey Trail; old logging road transitions to footpath; fairly gentle climb; the summit is the highest point in Norfolk. Excellent views during leaf-off times. Moderate

Number Four Trail (4.5 miles): accessed off of Camp Rd., Chattleton Rd. or Crissey Trail; main north-south gravel logging road; descends several hundred feet. You can access this trail from East or West Gate. Moderate

Trail Descriptions for GMF Recreational Map with Difficulty Ratings (in bold)

West Gate Trails (Falls Village)

Number Four Trail (4.5 miles): accessed off of Camp Rd., Chattleton Rd. or Crissey Trail; main north-south gravel logging road; descends several hundred feet. You can access this trail from East or West Gate. Moderate

Wapato Lookout Trail (0.1 miles): pedestrian only; short spur trail off Number Four Trail; dramatic features and overlooks Wapato Pond. Steep ledge, use caution, especially when wet. Moderate to Difficult

Chattleton Road (3 miles): well-maintained east-west gravel road; begins at West Gate; travels past Potter's Corner and Yale Camp; passes experimental conifer plantations; after Yale Camp, it becomes a trail as it approaches Meekertown Rd; no bridge across Brown Brook; terminates at Meekertown Road. It is 1.5 miles from the West Gate to Potter's Corner, then 0.5 miles to Yale Camp, then 1 mile from Yale Camp to Brown Brook. Yale University owns Yale Camp--no trespassing in any camp buildings. Easy (West Gate to Yale Camp), Moderate (Yale Camp to Meekertown Rd.)

Sam Yankee Trail (1.3 miles): accessed from Number Four Trail or Chattleton Rd.; passes through old orchard and pasturelands of old Chattleton Farm. Moderate

Matterhorn Trail (0.3 miles): pedestrian only; short spur trail off Sam Yankee Trail; views to the east of interior of GMF. Rock ledge with a view--use caution. Moderate to Difficult

High Pocket Swamp Trail (1.4 miles): pedestrian only; accessed off Chattleton Rd.; gentle loop; emerges at Potter's Corner; good trail for wildlife. Easy to Moderate

Iron Trail (1.9 miles): (partially pictured on map); pedestrian only; accessed off Canaan Mountain Rd. north of West Gate parking area; traverses Housatonic State Forest; terminates at "Stone Man" on Canaan Mountain with views of Housatonic Valley and Wangum Lake. Moderate to Difficult